THE GLEN MILLS SCHOOLS
CHARACTER - COMPETENCIES - CONFIDENCE
FOUNDED IN 1826
BUILD YOUR FUTURE.
The Glen Mills Schools provides residential programming for adjudicated males (ages 12-18), and community-based programming for both males and females (ages 12-18). It is a school of opportunity where youth can be transformed into positive and contributing members of society.

Year founded; oldest school of its kind in the United States

Career & Technical Programs

Acre Campus

Varsity and Junior Varsity Sports

Rather than punishing for past mistakes, our school looks to the future by developing character, competencies and confidence. The GMS difference starts with our core belief that our students have unlimited potential for achieving maximum personal growth.

This belief is evident in everything we do at Glen Mills, even in the language we use: these are students, not inmates; and they attend school, not a juvenile correction facility.
